OPPOSED

Are Women of the First Ward

To the Re-Election of Mr. Slabaugh,

Claiming He's Opposed to Kindergartens.

Mr. Slabaugh Denies Such Antag- onism—Mr. Hartzell's Position.

A number of women in the new first ward are opposing the re-election of Mr. W. E. Slabaugh to the Board of Education. They claim that he is opposed to the kindergarten department of the public schools, and they want only such members elected as are in favor of continuing the department.
Mr. Stephen P. Hartzell, Democratic candidate for school board in the First ward, is an advocate and supporter of the department, and he wishes it to be put on a practical and permanent basis.
His candidacy is meeting with little opposition.

Relative to his position in the matter, Mr. Slabaugh said to a reporter for the Democrat Tuesday evening:
"I am not antagonizing the kindergarten department. I voted tonight to continue the department, and have always voted for every motion and resolution looking toward the maintenance of kindergarten work. The only expression I have ever made which might look hostile to the system was to the effect that I was not satisfied with the way the department is being conducted at present, but I hope that a remedy may be found for all defects and the work continued along practical and effective lines."

It is claimed that the opposition of the women to Mr. Slabaugh's re-election is the result of a remark he made at a meeting of the Board to the effect that he was opposed to some of the uses to which the kindergarten department had been put.

LENTZ

Announced as Candi- date For Governor.

Says That He Would Not Con- sent to Run.

(Special Correspondence.)
Columbus, March 27.—At a Democratic meeting in this city last night, the candidacy of Colonel James Kilbourne was formally announced.
John J. Lentz, former Congressman from this district, who was present, made an address in which he disclaimed any ambition to be the nominee for the office of governor. He said that he never has been a candidate for the office, is not now a candidate and never will be a candidate. He expressed the hope that Franklin county will throw her solid vote at the convention to Colonel Kilbourne.

J. N. Hinkle, Democratic candidate for the mayoralty in this city, is a strong Lentz partisan. In case of his election, Lentz will control the party machinery in Franklin county. He claims that he will use all his influence to secure Colonel Kilbourne's nomination. The municipal election takes place next Monday and Hon. Henry C.
Taylor, judge advocate general on the governor's staff, is the Republican candidate for Mayor. An impartial examination of the conditions compels the belief that Mr. Taylor will be elected.
The city is normally Republican by a majority of approximately 1500.

dered condition of the stomach and con-druggists. E. Steinbacher & Co., wholesale agents.
